

Calvin Willis Craig, oldest son of Willard and Verda Rosella Craig, was born in Winterquarters, Carbon, Utah. His first six years were spent in mining camps in Carbon County, all of which are ghost towns now.

He was educated mostly in Spanish Fork, where he had a happy boyhood. He was involved in Student Government, athletics, and music in each of the many schools he attended.

After high school, he served in the military during World War II. He returned home, attended College of Eastern Utah, then went on a mission to Texas-Louisiana. He spent four years at BYU, graduating in 1951 with a degree in History and English, then graduate work and an Education Certificate followed.

He was employed by the Wasatch School District in 1952, and has spent his entire professional career in Heber teaching mostly Science. He received a Masters Degree in Science Education from the U of U in 1964 and has done graduate work from Utah State. He married Joyce Coleman Jones in 1954. She had three children. and they had three children together. They were divorced in 1975. He married Joyce Call Semken in 1977, and they have been on a Honeymoon ever since.

He has held various positions in the Church and is presently preparing for an LDS Mission with his Wife.

He enjoys sports, golfing, fishing and hunting which he does more for exercise than fame.

Joyce Call was born in Salt Lake City, and is the eldest of seven children. She was educated in Utah schools except for the second grade, when she attended school at Boulder City, Nevada, where her father was foreman of machinery of the Hoover Dam.

For most of her adult life she has worked out of the home. Before marriage as a telephone operator, later as a junior accountant for a CPA, then as an office manager for several years. Then in midlife, she returned to school to become a nurse. She is now employed at Wasatch County Hospital.

She finds learning very stimulating, likes music, ballet, art, camping and big dogs. She has been called to most of the positions in the Church except for Primary, but has helped with the music for that organization.

She is the mother of four children and they are all married and she has 16 grandchildren.

each one, but for Lori the effort, challenges and perserverance was much greater than for the normal student.

Due to health problems Lori has had since nine years of age, she had a constant struggle to bounce back after each sick spell, with many days and months missed school, always to catch up and keep her grades in the high percentile.

And the problems didn't diminish after she was accepted in BYU's School of Nursing. But she doggedly and determinedly kept persisting until she realized her dream of becoming a registered nurse as she received her diploma in the School of Nursing Convocation along with thirty-eight other students.

Her parents, Leslie and Joyce Olsen, her grandparents, Leah and Earl Houtz and Erma Olsen, friends and relatives have supported and encouraged her in attaining this goal.

Congratulations Lori!

Nurse of The Month

Brenda Price

Brenda Price was named March Nurse of The Month for Wasatch County Hospital. She was nominated by her colleagues who made such comments as "super nurse with excellent skills," "always willing to help," and "very knowledgeable". It's easy to see from these comments and others why she was chosen.

She is an RN who has worked at Wasatch County Hospital for the last four years. Her high level of skill has made her a great asset to the hospital, working as a charge nurse on the floor, in surgery, and as the respiratory coordinator.

Brenda graduated from the BYU RN program in 1971, but chose raising her family of four sons and four daughters and hubby, John, as her career for the next 16 years. In 1987, she decided it was time to get back into nursing. She took an IHC refresher course, kissed the kids, the cows, and hubby, John, goodbye and went to work.

Brenda really is a super nurse, but she works only a few days a week, mostly night shift, enabling her to keep her first career (her family) as a top priority. Congratulations, Brenda!
